WORD

READING FROM SCRIPTURE: Acts 2:1-11 (Lizaan Fourie)

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every people under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, “Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God’s deeds of power.”

Word of God; Word of Life. Thanks be to God.

Reading From the Gospel of Luke, The 5th Chapter: Luke 5:12-16

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

(Lizaan Fourie)

Once when he was in one of the cities, a man covered with a skin disease was there. When he saw Jesus, he bowed with his face to the ground and begged him, “Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean.” Then Jesus stretched out his hand, touched him, and said, “I am willing. Be made clean.” Immediately the skin disease left him. And he ordered him to tell no one. “But go, show yourself to the priest, and, as Moses commanded, make an offering for your cleansing, as a testimony to them.” But now more than ever the word about Jesus spread abroad; many crowds were gathering to hear him and to be cured of their diseases. Meanwhile, he would slip away to deserted places and pray.

The Gospel of our Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

SERMON

HYMN OF THE DAY: ELW 401 – Gracious Spirit, Heed Our Pleading

A PENTECOST AFFIRMATION: We Sing of the Spirit

We sing of God the Spirit,

who from the beginning has swept over the face of creation, animating all energy and matter and moving in the human heart.

We sing of God the Spirit,

faithful and untamable,

who is creatively and redemptively active in the world.

The Spirit challenges us to celebrate the holy not only in what is familiar,

but also in that which seems foreign.

We sing of the Spirit,
who speaks our prayers of deepest longing
and enfolds our concerns and confessions, transforming us and the world.

We offer worship
as an outpouring of gratitude and awe and a practice of opening ourselves to God's still, small voice of comfort, to God's rushing whirlwind of challenge.
Through word, music, art, and sacrament,
in community and in solitude,
God changes our lives, our relationships, and our world.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION (Carl Betke)

Spirit of the living God, who moves where boundaries have been drawn and breathes life where hope feels thin, we bring before you our prayers for the world and people you love. At the end of each prayer petition the congregation is invited to respond: Come Holy Spirit.

A brief silence.

We pray for our own community, for the lives gathered here with their hopes and fears, their energy and exhaustion. For those longing to be seen, for those carrying grief quietly, for those unsure if there is space for them, let your Spirit speak their name and draw them into belonging to be welcomed by each of us.

C: Come Holy Spirit.

We pray for all whose dignity has been denied: for those living with illness or disability and made to feel invisible; for refugees and migrants seeking safety and welcome; for those imprisoned by poverty, debt, or injustice; for communities targeted because of race, culture, gender, or sexuality. Speak your word of belonging in every language of pain and hope. Drive us out to engage with others that all might see your light shining through us and into this world in need.

C: Come Holy Spirit.

We pray for creation. In thanksgiving for the renewal of spring and the hope green grass and budding trees bring to those who see them. May the ongoing cycle of life inform our own lives, that we would care for all you made just as you desire to care for us. Use our voices and hands to heal, protect, and speak for all that you have made.

C: Come Holy Spirit.

We pray for all who need healing, of body, mind, and spirit. For those who long to be touched without fear, heard without judgement, and welcomed without condition. May your Spirit bring restoration that is deeper than cure and wider than relief. In silence we bring before you the prayers we carry personally, the names we hold tightly, and the longings we scarcely dare to voice. Today we name aloud in our prayers: Debbie Fournie, Norman Waltho, Emily Stebner, the Nuttal, Pedersen, Pelechovsky families, those on the ongoing prayer list, and all those who we now name silently or aloud... Spirit of fire and breath, do not leave us unchanged. Send us out with words that build up, actions that restore, and lives that make room for your justice and joy.

C: Come Holy Spirit.

HOSANNA ONGOING PRAYERS: Sandra (Klein) Cooney, Erna Kuraitis, Pat Bowman, Jackie Schriener, Crabb family, Barbara Bakke, Vi Bowdige, Glenys Schmidke, Brian Shaw, Dale Grinde, Gladys Hansen, Susan Leeson, Terry Daubert, Graeme Peppink, Terry Suvanto, Harold Benn, Raymond, Fiona, Mike Wende Aldon, Pamela Beuerlein, Pat and Morley Becker, Gail Hadfield, Tom Hampton, Linda Serink, Gordon and Marlene Chapman, Dana Lesmeister, Archie Martin, Kay, Sheila Wood, Dianne and Tom Kieren, Shawn Marino, Chantel, Nathaniel Rietveld, Beth Olsen, Ken Hansen, Erwin Marquardt, Deliah Johannas, Al Wende, Liz Wise, Holly Armstrong, Darlene Brown, Marilyn Beebe, Dianne Begert, Elaine McKinlay, George Kubinski, Chelsea Sloan, Hilda Lindae

We pray for the Church, in all its variety and fragility. Where we have settled for being agreeable, unsettle us. Where we have mistaken tradition for faithfulness, renew us. Give us ears to hear voices we have overlooked, and humility to learn from those we once excluded. Today we pray for our siblings in the faith, found near and far, including Bishop Carla and the people of the Eastern Synod. All being called by God into ordained ministry. Our Saviour Lutheran and St Joseph Lutheran, Hay Lakes. Our companion synod in Colombia. The Good Shepherd Community Facility and Programs, Bogota, Colombia, The Evangelical Lutheran Church of Venezuela and the Lutheran Churches in India. The Anglican Diocese of Calgary. The Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jordan and the Holy Land. The Anglican Diocese of Jerusalem.

C: Come Holy Spirit.

We pray for all those who are celebrate their birthdays and anniversaries this week. That the Holy Spirit move in, with, and through them so that they come to feel and know your presence. That their day be one of joy, community and connection. We pray for our siblings including Lennox

V., Bob Simpson, Garth Petterson, Frances Lutter. Bless them on their day and in the year to come.

C: Come Holy Spirit.

P: Come, Holy Spirit. Come again, and again, and make all things new.

C: Amen.

- ❖ Friday Night Flicks returns on June 5 at 7pm with a showing of The King's Speech, a 2010 historical drama about the future King George VI as he copes with a speech impediment that was causing him great stress as he was moving from his status as Prince Albert to becoming the King in 1936 after the abdication of his brother, the Prince of Wales. The movie follows his attempts to overcome his stuttering with the help of an Australian speech therapist, Lionel Logue, played by Geoffrey Rush. The film was an instant classic, receiving 12 Oscar nominations at the 2011 Academy Awards, winning the Best Picture award and the Best Actor award for Colin Firth as the King. One critic wrote of the film that: "The King's Speech is a moving, impeccably acted and surprisingly funny film that lingers in the mind and the emotions long after it ends." Join us on June 5 for pop and popcorn and some time together with your friends from Hosanna! Hosted by John Campbell
